"The Busy Corner." ALWAYS THE BEST OF EVERYTHING FOR THE LEAST

"Variety is the Spice of Life," is an old saying. We wish to borrow an idea and coin an expression, and that is: Variety is the mainspring of commercial success. It's a store that knows how to select materials for the proper time and the proper occasion. Our usual Remnant day occurs every Friday, and tomorrow won't be any exception to the rule about offering an assortment which is bound to bring the crowds to "The Busy Corner."

We've Made a Cracker-Jack Purchase of Dress Goods Remnants. 59c. to $1.25 Val= ues at = = = = =

Our big contracts with some of America's leading mills furnish us these advantages right along. No sooner is the commotion of one purchase subdued when another follows Only to stir shopping up to greater activity. This time 3,000 yards of All-wool Dress Goods-short lengths of the mills' products-plenty long enough to use for dresses, skirts and waists. Goods represented in this lot are Henriettas, Serges, Cashmeres, Broadcloths, Plaid Cloths, Foules, in black, blue, green, red, gray, castor, tan, brown, cerise, helio and evening shades. The widths of these fabrics range anywhere from 36 to 54 inches. You'll agree after looking over the bargain tables that this is the largest, finest remnant offer made for many a day, being goods for immediate service. We repeat that there are 59c. and some $1.25 qualities. Your unrestricted choice Friday at 49c.

BURIAL OF NORMAN NORTH

YOUNG HERO WHO LOST HIS LIFE IN PORTO RICO.

uneral Services and Interment at Arlington Cemetery Tomorrow-Story of His Death.

during the great hurricane which swept the Island of Porto Rico last August, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in Arlington national cemetery. Mr. North was a son of Rev. Joseph B. and Mrs. Mary M. North, formerly of Anacostia, where Mr. North served as pastor of Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church. The death was one of the most tragic that occurred during the terrible storm, and happened but a few days before he was to start for his home to resume a course at the Co-lumbian University. His body was recently brought here for burial.

The services tomorrow will be conducted by Rev. M. P. Snell and Dr. N. H. Miller, both of Anacostia. Although young Mr. North served in the army the funeral will not be a military one. The casket, however, will be draped in the national colors when interred in the National cemetery at Arribust of the National cemeters and the National cemeters at Arribust of the National cemeters and National ington. A funeral escort will consist of Messrs. A. B. Garden and C. O. Bohrer, to represent Garden Memorial Church; James represent Garden Memorial Church; James S. Cannon, to represent the class in Columbian University of which the deceased was a member; Edward Muth and William Pyles, to represent the High School, and Alexander Benz, an employe of St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

In Service of Country.

After graduating from the Washington course in medicine at Columbian University. He was pursuing his studies along this line when the war with Spain was declared. Anxious to defend his country's flag and yearning for real, active service, young North enlisted in the 5th United States Cavalry. His troop was finally stationed at Humacao, in Porto Rico, the place where he afterward met his death.

Mr. North had secured his discharged, but his services were needed by the quartermaster at Humacao, to assist in some clerical work, and he remained in the island for that purpose. Being a rapid stenographer and typewriter, his services were most valuable in the work assigned him by the quartermaster. A short while after his enlistment he was chosen as troop clerk. Young North's medical knowledge was also of great service to the men of his troop, whom he succored many times. Before going into the army he had acted as assistant to Dr. Blackburn, pathologist at St. Elizabeth's, the Government Hospital for the Insane, and had thus had unusual experience for a student of his years.

Story of His Death.

The story of Mr. North's death was told Anxious to defend his country's flag and

The story of Mr. North's death was told to his mother in a letter from the acting postmaster at Humacao, under date of August 10, as follows:

"Norman left us as he lived with us, performing his duty. It was while trying to cross a river, hurrying to save the weaker cross a river, hurrying to save the weaker perishing ones and those burled beneath the wreckage, that the current overpowered him and bore him down. This was the morning of the 8th. On the 10th his body was found two miles below the town, brought here and given a funeral that would have done any man honor. The commanding officer, Capt. E. Swift, conducted the services. Norman was going to start home Saturday."

Saturday."

Several other letters of the same tenor have been received by the parents. Rev. and Mrs. North are in the city, having come here from their home in Maryland to attend the funeral. They are stopping with friends at No. 303 1st street southeast,

UNUSUAL CHARGE.

Colored Man Accused of Biting Off a Cat's Tail.

William Blackwell, colored, was before the Police Court today accused of cruelty o animals. Agent Rabbit of the Humane ociety prepared the charge against him. alleging that he bit off a cat's tail. Blackwell was clipping a horse belonging to General Miles when the cat in question got in his way. A witness told the court that he saw the colored man pick up the cat, and when he put it down the end of the animal's tail was in his mouth.

Blackwell admitted that he had the piece of the cat's tail in his mouth, but denied that he bit it off. The horse, he said, stepped on the tail, and fearing the cat would get killed he pulled it away. In doing so, he said, a piece of the tail came off and he did put it in his mouth to hold it. Agent Rabbit produced in evidence the piece of tail, which consisted of about an inch of hair and six inches of sinews.

A fine of $5$ was imposed by the court. alleging that he bit off a cat's tail. Black-

At 12:30 o'clock an adjournment was taken and by order of Justice Clabaugh of Criminal Court No. 1 forty additional talesmen were summoned to appear in court forthwith, making a total of 105 pos-sible jurymen summoned. Court met again shortly before 3 o'clock and the examinashortly before 3 o'clock and the examination was continued.

The defense at the noon adjournment yet had five peremptory challenges to exercise and the United States one. Most of the jurors excused today for cause were either ill, according to certificates presented, or were opposed to capital punishment. The jury will undoubtedly be completed some time during the afternoon.

The crowd in the court room is increasing

TROUBLE OVER LEASE.

Thatcher & Himes Apply to Court for an Injunction. Charles J. Thatcher and James M. Himes, trading as Thatcher & Himes, today, through Attorneys T. A. and Wilton J. Lambert, filed a bill in equity for injunction and specific performance of an alleged agreement against the firm of Thos. G. agreement against the limit of lines. G. Hensey Company. The petition sets forth that the claimants have for some time been conducting a lunch room at No. 320 12th street, under a lease from the defendants, which it is said ran for one year from February, 1899, with a privilege of renewal in February, 1899, with a privilege of renewal in February, 1899. For a further term of three years. It is averred that when the extension was demanded last February the same was refused, and in March a notice was sent demanding that the complainants vacate by May 1.

It is charged that the alleged action by the defendants was in violation of complainants' rights and an effort to deprive them of a good business acquired through their efforts, thus causing petitioners great financial injury. The court is asked to enjoin the defendants pendente lite and permanently from dispossessing complainants, and to require them to specifically perform the agreement for an extension of lease. Hensey Company. The petition sets forth

A hack in charge of Henry Brewer, colored, collided with a street car at Pennsylvania avenue and 1st street about 1 o'clock this morning. The hack was badly damaged and the driver was thrown to the pavement and injured. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital for treatment and was afterward taken to the first precinct on a charge of intoxication.
